What is Choralfest?

Choralfest 2010 is a four-day event, July 7 – 10. The conference's purposes are to promote artistic excellence, cooperation, and exchange by bringing together the finest choirs and choral leaders for seminars, reading sessions, and performances; to facilitate the dissemination of choral repertoire, research, recordings, and other related material and information; and to enhance the existing choral life in Australia.

Choice of 3 options:

- 1 Conference Delegate
(Full access to whole conference including all workshops, interest session, open rehearsals and concerts)
- 2 Big Sing Participant
(Experience the thrill of being in a massed choir while also being part of the National Conference with some workshops sessions and concerts)
- 3 National Secondary Honour Choir
(Open to all Yr 10 – 12 students by audition)

Choralfest 2010 will include:

- Welcome ceremony and concert
- Professional development sessions
- Conducting Masterclasses
- Workshops, seminars, reading sessions, discussion groups
- Open rehearsals with renowned conductors
- Daily Concerts
- Conference dinner

Picturesque Port Macquarie

A coastal conference escape, Port Macquarie is where delegates can combine the pleasures of an idyllic waterfront setting with a premium conference venue. Port Macquarie is a picturesque seaside location where delegates can relax, recharge & refocus while gaining professional development from some of the best choral conductors in Australia. Port Macquarie has spectacular beaches only a stroll away as well a brand new Performing Arts Centre in the Glasshouse.

Keynote Presenters

Three international conductors will be the Key note presenters for Choralfest 2010.

JING LING-TAM
(USA)

Jing Ling-Tam, Professor of Music, is the UTA Director of Choral Studies. As one of America's most sought after choral conductors, she has garnered international recognition in North America, Europe and Southeast Asia. A compelling musician, Prof. Ling-Tam has conducted All-State and Honor Choirs throughout the United States.

JENS JOHANSEN
(DENMARK)

Vocal Line was formed in January 1991 by Jens Johansen, who has conducted the choir ever since. Besides conducting, he also finds time to arrange new songs. At the University of Aarhus, his lectures include "Arranging for Pop/Rock Choir", "Conducting Contemporary Choir" and "Music Theory and Analysis". In addition, he also teaches "Conducting Contemporary Choir" at the Royal Academy of Music in Aarhus.

BRUCE ROGERS
(USA)

Professor Bruce Rogers is the Director of Choral Activities at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, California, a position he assumed in 1994. In this role, he oversees the department's various vocal and choral programs, which span the entire spectrum of music – from classical to jazz. He directs Mt. San Antonio College's award-winning Chamber Singers and the elite vocal jazz ensemble, Singcopation.
